

THE DAILY SENTINEL is sent by all the early morning express and freight trains, and delivered to subscribers in adjacent towns at the same time it is distributed in this city. This enables readers at a distance from the Capital to get the news of the day from six to twelve hours before they can receive it through papers published elsewhere. News dealers and carriers in any of the towns on railroads connecting at Indianapolis, will be supplied with the SENTINEL, on as good terms as any other paper. Clubs for the Daily will be supplied at Agents' rates. Orders are solicited.

SPEECHES OF Hendricks and Voorhees.

The speech of Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, before the Democratic Convention on the 10th of January, 1862, and the speech of Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, in the House of Representatives, February 20, in the face of the Federal Government in its relations to the civil war and the objects for which it should be prosecuted, are for sale at this office, published in a pamphlet of sixteen pages, including both speeches. Each one is among the ablest delivered in the present crisis, and should be placed in the hands of every voter in the State. Price $1 per hundred. All orders promptly filled.

Proceedings of the State Convention.

The extra edition of the Sentinel, containing the proceedings of the 8th of January Convention, being exhausted, and to meet the additional orders we are daily receiving for them, we have concluded to publish another edition of large type. Those of our friends who desire to order them will please do so promptly.

ORDINANCES.

An ordinance to prevent the erection of cattle pens and declaring them nuisances, failed on its passage. Ayes 1—nays 9.

Mr. Wallace introduced an ordinance for the grading and graveling Market street and sidewalks, between the east side of Alabama street and the west side of New Jersey street. Read first and second time.

Mr. Haughey introduced an ordinance to amend an ordinance concerning the Fire Department. Read first and second time.

Mr. Brown introduced an ordinance regulating the costs to be charged for violating city ordinances. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Mayor submitted the resignation of G. W. Geisendorff, Comptroller of the 4th Ward, which was accepted.

Our correspondent is not alone in his opinion of the abuses, by the police, of the ordinance against leaving horses hitched in the streets. The Journal, of Saturday says, "We have received a communication taking exception to the conduct of some of our city officials as to the manner in which the ordinance is enforced," but declines to publish it. Now, as the local of the Journal is a member of the Council, we shall anxiously look for some action which will remedy some of the evils," for he with our correspondent and hundreds of other citizens admits they exist—"that they grow out of the enforcement of this ordinance." We hope the suggestion of our correspondent, as one of the remedies, will not be overlooked, that is requiring the police to warn for the first, and only arrest for the second, offense. The conduct of the city officials, in the manner of enforcing this law, is creating such great indignation in the minds of the citizens that we think it will be an easy matter at the next election to oust them from the positions they have so flagrantly prostituted to their own aggrandizement.

HERMANN.—A new sensation is about to visit our city. After turning the heads of every metropolis in the Union, Hermann is soon to visit us. And who may Hermann be? Is the natural question. He is the genius in the magic line, the most ambidextrous prestidigitator, the most original and ever peopled a psychometamorph; the only real and self-evidently indisputable descendant from Cornelius Agrippa, if indeed he is not the aforesaid Cornelius himself, once in broadcloth and transmitted to latter times to puzzle the five senses of mankind by a skill which, with the most singularly preposterous confusions, he is good enough to call merely slight of hand. He is the identical gentleman who is so "half fellow well met" with Sathana, that he transfers your watch and purse from your pockets into the sole of an old boot in your bed room, or the bowl of soup you lunch at the restaurant's next morning for your lunch. It is no use opening your eyes and keeping them fixed upon him; he is the master of your visual organs, and makes them see and believe whatever he thinks it advisable that they should.

THE REV. DR. BROWNLOW SMITH.—This gentleman recently lectured, on the invitation of Gov. Morton, before our citizens in the Hall of the House of Representatives. His Excellency, Parson Hyde, Parson Tindall, the Journal, the Young Men's Northwestern Christian Society, and all the rest interested and commended him especially as he brought a tale about Andy Johnson's wife having received fifty lashes on her bare back from the rebels in Tennessee. Certainly, bringing this story, he was voted a good man, and benevolent statesman, including the Governor, and philanthropic ladies, including others, flocked to hear him. We cannot do better, for their edification, than copy the following from the Columbus Ohio Journal:

"Dr. Brownlow—We acknowledge the 'sell,' in fact we were completely disposed of, and 'the money received' by a sounder calling himself Rev. Dr. Brownlow Smith. From representations from prominent individuals, we were led to disbelieve the charge made by the Dayton Journal, and that he was an impostor, and we take back all we said. But his actions in this city since that time have convinced us that the Journal did not tell one half the truth; he is not only an impostor, but he is also a thief, and we warn our friends of the press everywhere against his impostures.

The next charlatan that comes along, especially if Gov. Morton indorses him, we shall go to hear.

For the greater variety, best prepared delicacies of the seasons and the more beautiful supply of trimmings, commended us to the Crystal Palace, Washington street, opposite the Palmer House. This old establishment is the most orderly, quiet and creditable place of resort in our city. Mr. Beck cannot be surpassed as a caterer for the most fastidious epicure. His cooks are expeditious and are not to be excelled in the manner in which they prepare their dishes for the table. His patrons are always assured of prompt attendance from the waiters, a spotless cloth, bright knives, clean plates, and the best of condiments. So famous has this establishment become for these superior accommodations that it is the most extensively patronized of all our restaurants.

SEABOARD AFFRAY.—On Saturday last Mr. H. Walls, the proprietor of an eating saloon near the Union Depot, had an altercation with John McCabe, whom he had formerly in his employ. McCabe struck Mr. Walls, who retreated, going from behind his counter into his kitchen. Here McCabe followed, and being a stout and desperate man, kicked the cook and struck Mrs. Walls a severe blow on the shoulder. This was more than Mr. Walls could stand and knowing his man seized a butcher knife, the first implement lying near, and defended himself and his wife and one household. He inflicted two or three severe wounds on McCabe, only seeking to disable him. The result was McCabe retired bloodily and fainting. An investigation of the case will be held before the Mayor to-day at 2 P. M.
